NEW DELHI: Della Leaders Club \(DLC\), launched by founder of the Della Group, Jimmy Mistry to create a support system for modern entrepreneurs has launched its Delhi chapter.

The platform currently has 2,100 Honorary Committee Members, 15 chapters and five offices in place.

DLC's Delhi chapter was formally inaugurated by Shashi Tharoor, Lok Sabha MP and Chairman of Parliamentary Standing Committee, Delhi and Suhel Seth, MD, Counselage India in the digital presence of various Honorary Committee Members of eminence across our 15 Global Chapters

"Harnessing young India's potential and bringing about the social and economic transformation we all hope for will require highly educated and motivated individuals like all of you attending today and the leadership of DLC to in turn provide leadership across the various sectors of our economy. I am hopeful that through your efforts, India's burgeoning entrepreneurial ambitions can actually become a significant weapon in our national arsenal as you march towards greater economic growth" said Tharoor.

"DLC will not only be a valuable unicorn when you look at valuation but will also be a valuable partner for young people and old for people who aspire and for people who inspire and for people who want to make the change that they can or can't be" said Seth.

With the need to create a global social impact at its core and build a socially responsible platform, Mistry, innovator, design thinker and social entrepreneur launched DLC, a global community of entrepreneurs, professionals and young leaders.

"The purpose of DLC is to help our members create future fit organisations and drive global social impact. Entrepreneurs, Professionals and Young Leaders today, have a calling beyond just building their businesses- they want to help others, while making a meaningful contribution to their industry, and to society at large. This is what exactly the DLC seeks to provide and be a catalyst of positive change," said Mistry.
